ALLEGATIONS
The Complainant alleges that on 11 SEP 2010, 0219 hrs., at 8600 S. Ashland Ave., the accused pulled from the gas station into traffic, with no emergency equipment activated and the Complainant almost struck his vehicle. The Complainant alleges she sounded her horn at the accused and he made a U-turn, pulled her over and requested her driver's license and registration to which she complied. The Complainant also alleges that she exited her vehicle and inquired why she had been stopped and the accused stated to her, "Because of your mouth. Now get back in the car." The Complainant also alleges that the accused was smoking a cigarette, and blowing smoke in her face. The Complainant further alleges she requested the star number and name of the accused and she was informed again to get back in the car and at this point she telephoned 911 for a Sergeant and the accused informed her he was the Supervisor. The Complainant further alleges the accused had another Officer come to the scene and issue the citation for cracked windshield.

In sustained cases ONLY, copies of the accused member's Summary of Previous Disciplinary Actions and Record of Previous Complimentary History will be included as attachments.

Reporting Lieutenant received this investigation and sent the Complainant an e-mail notification and a certified letter with contact information.

Reporting Lieutenant successfully contacted the Complainant on 19 OCT 20 and interviewed the Complainant on 20 OCT 10. She stated that she filed this complaint via the internet, and stood by the allegations in her original complaint [Att. 1C-1E], with the additional allegation that the accused member was blowing cigarette smoke in her face. Att. 2. She indicated that she wished to proceed with her Complaint, and signed the Sworn Affidavit. Att. 3.

From the description of the accused officer, Reporting Lieutenant determined that the only Male Black supervisor working the 006th District on first watch was Sgt. Kevin GLOVER. In his response to the allegations, Sgt. GLOVER admits that he was the supervisor who stopped the Complainant. Att. 7.

Sgt. GLOVER was served with the allegations and other administrative forms. Att. 4, 5, 6. In his response, Sgt. GLOVER admits that he pulled the Complainant over, but stated it was for a cracked windshield that he observed as she drove by. Att. 7. The Complainant admits that her windshield was cracked. Att. 2. Sgt. GLOVER denies that he refused to provide his name, and that he responded "because of your mouth" when asked why the Sgt. pulled the Complainant over. He also denies smoking in front of the Complainant. Att. 7.

After review of the statements, Reporting Lieutenant is unable to prove or disprove the allegations by substantial evidence, and finds that the allegations in the Complaint should be NOT SUSTAINED.
